MARIE WALKER

for the courage she displayed during her long struggle with dread Scoliosis. Marie spent one year and one month in a full cast and underwent several operations during the past two years. Her disposition has remained unchanged and she is the same sweet person we have always loved.

Nature has given us an unusual gift—the gift of trees. They are all about us but sometimes we do not see them. To sharpen our observation and to strengthen our appreciation of nature's generous gift, we have chosen as the theme of our yearbook—TREES.

CLASS MOTTO—Drawn to the heights of education.

CLASS HISTORY

Thirty-five happy sophomores experienced an exciting school term in 1960. This was the year the Vikings became champions. The members of the sophomore class showed their appreciation by honoring the Vikings with a "Victory Dance." Our advisor was Mr. Weimer.

During 1961-1962 thirty-five enthusiastic juniors worked hard. The Christmas Dance, "Wonderland of Christmas," was very special and well planned. Everyone attending enjoyed the dance immensely. In the spring we anxiously prepared for the class play, "The Thread That Runs So True" by Jesse Stuart. Three weeks later, "Holland Holiday," our prom in honor of the seniors, delighted many juniors and seniors. Miss Wilmer, our advisor, was quite instrumental in making our junior year a success.

Thirty-three anxious seniors started the 1962-1963 term. The first project of the year was sending money to CARE instead of buying Christmas gifts for each other. Pictures, name cards, announcements, caps, and gowns were ordered next. The yearbook was a prominent topic of discussion and planning throughout our senior year. We would like to pay tribute to Donna Lowry who has faithfully served as class president for two years. Mr. Miller gave our class quite a bit of guidance and help in our last year. To all our parents goes a great big thank-you for their care and wise supervision.

The 1963 yearbook staff elected to publish a full term yearbook. This will enable them to include graduation pictures in their school annual. We hope this new feature will be well received by our school and community.

This year's staff has discovered what a difficult undertaking the senior yearbook can be but we feel it is well worth the effort.

We wish to thank the entire senior class which served as a business staff in both the magazine and advertising campaigns.
